Question 1	Some people consider that library should be a quiet place for studying, other people think that library is a place for meeting other people and doing discussions, which do you agree, explain why.
Question 2	Reading part	Listening part
	【学校公告】 Notice: The university is going to use the money donated by the students to fix the campus clock. Reason 1: the bell represents the campus, students should be proud of that; Reason 2: the bell serves as an alarm, reminding students not to be late for classes;	【学生态度】 The man disagrees. Reason 1: the clock's photo has been posted on the website, and some t-shirt of the campus has the clock printed on it, which implies that the clock is the symbol of the campus already, and it doesn't need to make a sound all the time. Reason 2: Students have better ways to remind themselves, like using their smart phones or the watches.
	Question: Explain the man's opinion and why he holds that opinion.
Question 3	Reading part	Listening part
	【名词解释】 Distinction bias: when people are comparing two similar products, they tend to magnify the difference between these two products and persuade themselves to buy the one they think is better.	【教授举例】 The professor once went to buy a TV set. There were two TVs that met his requirements. At last he chose the more expensive one which seemed to have a better color display. One week later, a friend of his bought the other one, the cheaper one, and the professor found that there were actually little difference between these two TVs. He realized that he'd wasted some money.
	Question: 用听力的例子来解释对这个概念的理解。
Question 4	【讲课要点】 Two ways to build a safe environment for a team The first way is to allow team members to make mistakes Example: A leader shares one mistake he has made, telling the members that making mistakes is inevitable, but one must know how to adjust from it. The second way is to arrange some casual activities regularly Example: A company arranges a weekly lunch regularly. In this setting, members can communicate with each other and feel safe.
